

Early Journal Content on JSTOR, Free to Anyone in the World

This article is one of nearly 500,000 scholarly works digitized and made freely available to everyone in the world by JSTOR.

Known as the Early Journal Content, this set of works include research articles, news, letters, and other writings published in more than 200 of the oldest leading academic journals. The works date from the mid-seventeenth to the early twentieth centuries.

We encourage people to read and share the Early Journal Content openly and to tell others that this resource exists. People may post this content online or redistribute in any way for non-commercial purposes.

EDITORIAL NOTE

With the next issue (August, 1919) the PROCEEDINGS will return to the larger type which was initially adopted but which was reduced a year and a half ago as a War economy. The return would have been made sooner but for the large amount of matter already set up and delayed in publication by a series of unavoidable accidents.
